Southbridge Savings Bank Raises Money for Animal Shelter

Animal lovers joined together on February 6th, as employees of Southbridge Savings Bank teamed with the Friends of Charlton Animal Shelter (F.O.C.A.S) for a special “picture with your pet” day. The public was invited to stop by the Charlton branch of Southbridge Savings Bank and get their pet’s picture taken in return for a donation to F.O.C.A.S. The day was a complete success, not only were there some great pictures, but they also raised $390 for the shelter.

The mission of Friends of the Charlton Animal Shelter is to raise funds to improve the housing and care for homeless and displaced animals in Charlton, Ma. They also provide the funds needed for special equipment, educational programs and services, including public awareness relating to animal health, disease and cruelty issues. If you would like to help F.O.C.A.S, visit them at focascharlton.org.

Southbridge Savings Bank currently has 10 convenient locations located throughout Central Massachusetts to meet your personal and business needs, with four branches open seven days a week.
